

Popular Girl's Store Closes its Doors

By: McKenna Norman

The popular girls clothing store, Justice, located in the Crossroads mall, closed its doors for the last time on Thursday leaving many people in the community heartbroken. The closing left local high schooler, Sarah Fulton, unemployed, and when asked how she felt about the situation she was quick to reply. "I am distraught. Justice was like my second home, and now I am left with nothing."

For many this closing came as no shock, as the local mall has been on the down turn for years now. Due to the lower foot traffic facing the mall it is unclear if any store will choose to move into the spot that once held Justice.

Return to main site here.